The proposed rule to require broadcasters to record & maintain programming content is extremely unnecessary. The rule punishes responsible broadcasters for the actions of a few. We have never received a programming complaint, yet would be required to record & store hours of programming at overwhelming cost to the station in dollars & manpower. There must be a better way to monitor stations that will not cause such hardship to everyone for the actions of a small minority.